Things to make sure...

Your internet settings are password-protected

Your home page is child-friendly

Your search engine is kid-safe or in restricted mode

Your child only uses internet-enabled devices in full view of an adult

Apps and games are age appropriate for them

Set up parental controls

Talk with your child.

Sites, games and apps with a social media or messaging aspect:

Minecraft

Roblox

WhatsApp

YouTube

Facebook Kids

Instagram

Gambling

Online games

Violence

Discrimination

Sex

Drugs

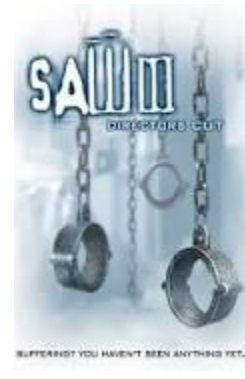

Fear

Bad language

Pan European Game Information (PEGI) are legally enforceable age ratings (since 2010!)

You wouldn't show your children these films...

They shouldn't be playing these games.

The Google logo is positioned at the top center of the page, above the main title. It consists of the word "Google" in its signature multi-colored font, with a white underline beneath it.

INTERLAND

Be Internet Awesome.

LET'S DO THIS!

Children have a tendency to forget that they are interacting with REAL people!

There is only so much we can cover at school (and we cover a lot).
Have the conversations with your child!

Be Internet Awesome.

Being Internet Awesome means being smart, alert, strong, kind, and brave. To demonstrate these qualities, I plan to stick to the following guidelines:

Share with Care

I will thoughtfully consider what I share and with whom and keep extra sensitive information to myself (i.e., home address, current location, other people's business).

Don't Fall for Fake

I will watch out for phishing and scams and report questionable activity every time.

Secure Your Secrets

I will take responsibility for protecting important information by crafting strong and unique passwords with characters, numbers, and symbols.

It's Cool to Be Kind

I will spread positivity and use the skills I have learned to block and report negative behaviors.

When in Doubt, Talk It Out

I will use my voice when I notice inappropriate behavior and seek out a trusted adult to discuss situations that make me uncomfortable.

Because that's what it takes to be a safe and fearless explorer of the online world.

Signed,
