

St Augustine's School Newsletter

Friday 9 November 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been another busy week at St Augustine's with children working hard and really enthused about their learning. On Thursday our music teacher Mrs Ley got started on the preparations for Christmas and the children sounded fabulous!

Remembrance display

We have a beautiful display in School to commemorate Remembrance Sunday and the 100th Anniversary of the end of World War 1. My enormous thanks to Mrs Thomas for arranging poppies made by every child in the School. The children in Year 6 walked to the war memorial in Downham to join with Bonus Pastor Catholic College for their annual remembrance service.

Headteacher Awards

Patricia in Year 2 for her fabulous writing.

Year 6 parent teacher meetings

The postponed parent teacher meetings for Year 6 have now been arranged for Thursday 29th November from 8:30 – 11am and then 3:30 – 6pm. The list will be in the School Office from Monday morning so please pop in and sign up. If you are unable to get to School on Monday please email or call to request a time.

Christmas dates

We are very much looking forward to our Christmas productions from children throughout the School and all other Christmas activities. Dates are listed below so that you can get them in your diary in plenty of time! More information will follow closer to the time.

- Wednesday 12 December - Years 1 and 2 to see Aladdin at The Broadway Theatre
Thursday 13 December - Years 3 and 4 to see Aladdin at the Broadway Theatre 10am Nativity performed by Reception, Years 1 and 2

age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun*

*and in the morning,
we will remember them.”*
